INTRODUCTION FROM THE CEO

With 26 years of expertise in the road freight transportation industry, Everwest Group is a leading logistics company, operating in Europe, CIS, and China. We own a fleet of more than 2,400 trucks and 2,800 trailers, supported by a team of over 6,000 employees.

Everwest Group is continuously expanding its operating network into new regions, bringing cutting-edge and environmentally friendly solutions to strengthen its position in the market as the leading company that provides tailored and client-centric logistics services.

Everwest Group's reputation and business depend on complying with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, and contractual obligations in all the countries where we operate. Every Everwest Group company and employee must follow all relevant national and international legislation.

The Code of Conduct endorses the Fundamental Principles of Rights at Work, the ILO declaration, the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact, and the International Bill of Human Rights. We, as a company along with our employees, have a duty to comply with these.

Our Code of Conduct sets out what behavior is expected of the Everwest Group and its employees, business partners, and customers. It is the responsibility of all employees to understand and adhere to the company's policies and procedures. However, the Code cannot cover every issue that may arise in our company, and therefore, you should always use common sense when conducting business on behalf of the Everwest Group. If you are uncertain about any public laws, policies, or contractual obligations, then seek advice.

Pavel Kveten,

CEO Everwest Group

QUALITY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

The policy is realized via a quality management system, which covers the standards of quality, the physical safety of cargo, the safety of medicinal drugs and production for medical purposes, product safety, employee health and security, transportation of chemical industry goods, and environmental protection.

Integrated quality management system:

- ensure employee involvement and reaching for results, based on the organization's strategic goals;
- offer high-quality services which meet clients' demands; create additional value for clients while ensuring profitable growth of the organization;
- guarantee to stick to the stated quality and other standards;
- raise employee qualifications, professionalism, and work efficiency;
- encourage and foster the culture and quality management system to ensure continuous organizational development and improvement;
- realize and develop operations based on LEAN philosophy and methodology, removing unnecessary waste;
- operate with the aim to reduce CO2 emissions and involve employees and partners in environmental protection initiatives.

Quality Management System is oriented to a high-quality and effective, everyday performance of tasks, raising employee qualifications, process review and standardization, and the sharing and documentation of process information.

Quality management system consists of:

- change management when installing new processes – process standardization, documentation and ensuring documentation and information flow, raising employee qualifications;
- ensuring process quality and effectiveness – a system of non-conformities, process audits, and CAPA methodology;
- understanding clients' needs and reacting to their expectations;
- quantity and value of existing projects;
- LEAN methodology understanding and culture development in the organization;
- constant application of LEAN methods in everyday operations helping to develop employee autonomy, responsibility, and teamwork.

WORKING CONDITIONS

In Everwest Group we strongly believe in human rights, as provided in the Charter of the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights. These are fundamental and should always be protected. It is our policy that all people who carry out work and services for Everwest Group, whether directly as Everwest Group employees or indirectly as employees of our suppliers, must be treated with dignity and shown the highest respect for their fundamental rights.

2.1 COMPLIANCE WITH THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS

Everwest Group fully supports and will always work to comply with conventional human rights and labour laws.

The diversity of our employees contributes to the success of our company. We actively promote a work environment that values equality, diversity, and inclusion where all employees feel equally accepted.

You must recognize and support equal human rights for all.

You must not tolerate differential

- treatment;
- discrimination;
- harassment;
- inappropriate or unreasonable interference with work performance.

The above applies irrespective of age, nationality, race, disability, or gender, including gender identity or gender expression, sexual, religious, or political orientation, and ethnic or social background. Physical, sexual, mental, or verbal abuse is prohibited, as are threats of abuse and any form of intimidation.

2.2 FIGHTING MODERN SLAVERY

Everwest Group is committed to the fight against and does not tolerate any practices of human trafficking forced labour, and debt servitude across our supply chains and in any other part of our business.

Forced employment and working conditions resembling servitude are prohibited.

The minimum age for workers is not less than 18 and complies with:

- the national minimum age for employment, or;
- the age of completion of compulsory education, whichever of these is higher.

There shall not be a recruitment of child labour, this is defined as any work performed by a child younger than the ages specified above.

No person under the age of 18 shall be engaged in labour that is hazardous to their health, safety, or morals, including night work.

Everwest Group commits to react immediately to all instances where child labour is identified, acting in the best interest of the child, by ensuring that the child is removed from their job position and is provided with sustainable alternatives for further development.

2.4 REGULAR EMPLOYMENT

Everwest Group complies with current national legislation and agreed standards for employee working hours, wages, and work environments.

Obligations to employees under international conventions, national law, and regulations concerning regular employment are not avoided through the use of short-term contracting (such as contract labour, casual labour, or day labour), sub-contractors, or other labour relationships.

The following rules always apply:

- employees have the right to join a union and to collective bargaining;

- constructive dialogue between employer and employee is fully supported;
- all workers are entitled to a contract of employment in a language they understand; employees must receive a letter of confirmation of their employment conditions if required by national legislation; employees have the right to leave Everwest Group, a right that is stated in the employment contract and is an integral part of the local labour code;
- the duration and content of apprenticeship
- programmes are clearly defined;
- a record of every employee's working hours and wages is kept, ensuring compliance and transparency.

2.5 WAGES

The remuneration of employees, including the benefits provided, as a minimum must meet national legal standards and / or industry benchmark standards, whichever is higher.

A deduction from wages as a disciplinary measure shall not be permitted.

All workers are provided with a written and understandable contract outlining their wage conditions and method of payments before entering employment.

2.6 DRIVING TIME AND REST PERIODS FOR OUR DRIVERS

Maximum daily and fortnightly driving times, as well as daily and weekly minimum rest periods for all drivers at Everwest Group are regulated in accordance with the EU rules or local laws in countries where EU regulations do not apply.

Guidelines are established for how to follow these regulations, including installing a real-time telematics system which provides online access to drivers' tachographs and card data, in addition, we have an increasing number of trucks with new digital tachographs.

2.7 CABOTAGE AND INTERNATIONAL DRIVING

Everwest Group is strictly against traffic offences; the company constantly works on developing monitoring systems and on improving driver education to prevent traffic offences.

All applicable international and national traffic rules must be respected.

Everwest Group follows the EU and non-EU countries rules for cabotage. By using a combination of education, planning, and integrating telematics data with our IT systems we can monitor our network and avoid mistakes regarding cabotage. We work closely with national institutions to prevent cabotage infringements and adjust our processes and operations, respectively.

2.8 SUPPLY CHAIN SECURITY

Combining traditional practices of supply chain management with the security requirements, for combatting threats such as terrorism, piracy, and theft, Everwest Group commits its efforts to ensure security throughout its entire supply chain.

Everwest Group cooperates with the border control and other official institutions to prevent illicit trafficking and brokering of material.

Main supply chain security activities include verification of participants in the supply chain as well as screening and validating the contents of cargo.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Health, safety and well-being of our employees is a core value of our company. It is critical that we ensure a healthy physical and psychological working environment for our employees in each of their workplaces, whether on the road, our own sites or those of our clients, we are committed to not only monitoring and improvement but proactive approach to safety. Each employee should contribute to upkeeping their safety at work and the creation of a safe environment for their colleagues, through compliance with all safety regulations and exercising care to prevent accidents.

This applies to all operating areas, for all employees and sub-contractors.

A zero tolerance to alcohol and substance abuse at the workplace.

3.2 BEHAVIOUR BASED SAFETY POLICY

Safety is one of the main goals in terms of people and the cargo that we are delivering. To secure people and maintain ongoing operations we have a Behavior Based Safety (BBS) policy in place, that covers all the activities and areas needed to reduce the number of accidents.

We are involving management at every stage of the BBS policy to ensure alignment across the whole Everwest Group and its operations. Our leaders are inspiring and empowering employees to implement safety behavior in their day-to-day life. To secure continuous improvement we cooperate with our colleagues to identify and resolve hazards that occurs in their work environment. We have also specified and provided appropriate Personal Protective Equipment for each place of work, with clear instructions on how to use them, with a maintenance and servicing process in place.

The BBS system is evaluated internally on a regular basis. The goal is to learn from observations and to positively influence the future behaviour of workers to gradually improve the safety culture across the organisation.

It is acknowledged by the management that unsafe actions, poor decision-making, at-risk behaviour, etc. are signs that the company has a poor safety culture. For the management to evolve the safety culture it must show commitment which involves the management and employees attending regular safety meetings, trainings according to risk assessment on each workplace, and initiatives like the ECO Driving training league or annual mandatory safety training courses for drivers, Gemba Safety Walks during which we point out the hazards to employee and tell them what are possible consequences of unsafe actions.

Additionally, we have implemented a Near Miss Reporting System when an unsafe condition, near miss etc. is reported and communicate back what actions have been taken to avoid future incidents and reduce the number of accidents. All written procedures and instructions are communicated internally on a regular basis, establishing a sufficient level of information to secure the safety of our employees and the community.

Our top management leads by example in following procedures and using PPE and are open to any suggestions or concerns from employees on improving safety systems and procedures. As we know that safety issues are crucial, senior management along with employees do take immediate actions whenever there is an unsafe situation or near miss reported and communicate widely and openly the action plans for future improvements.

We encourage a team spirit and trust between employees and management, and show commitment to safety within all activities, through regular controls, discussions and improvement programmes.

EVERWEST SUPPLY CHAIN SECURITY

Everwest Group commits to ensuring supply chain security according to the newest version of the TAPA Trucking Security Requirements (TSR) standard, when organising international and domestic transportation by road of high-value cargo. This policy is applied to all companies and operational areas of the group, directly or indirectly linked to the transportation and transportation organisation of high-value cargo at risk of being stolen.

This policy is based on the main TAPA TSR principles for supply chain and cargo security, modelling our operations across the whole supply chain.

4.1 THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF SUPPLY CHAIN SECURITY

All employees and contractors related to the transportation of high-value cargo at risk of being stolen must be aware of and take responsibility for the security aspects of the organization's business.

Everwest Group commits to appointing a person responsible for supply chain security, with the aim to ensure a secure supply chain, and smooth operation and monitoring of the TAPA TSR programme.

Everwest Group commits to providing employees with appropriate supply chain security training. Hazard analysis and risk assessments must be carried out regularly.

Security procedures and guidelines must be effectively integrated into business operations. Incident prevention must be the main priority.

Safety precautions and procedures must be regularly checked and approved by the person responsible, aiming to maintain the high operational safety standards of Everwest Group.

The professionalism, knowledge, and integrity of the employees related to the security questions must be controlled.

Education plans, employment, contract formation and termination procedures must be set and appropriately implemented.

All cases, including security breaches, must be reported; the cases must be analyzed, and corrective actions must be taken to improve the overall security level.

COMPETITION

Competition laws, like all other legislation, are vital to us and must always be strictly adhered to. To ensure compliance we must be aware of situations that could have an impact on competition.

Agreements, regardless of contract form, must always be negotiated in compliance with fair competition principles.

5.1 LIMITATION OF COMPETITION

You must not conclude any formal or informal contracts or agreements with the intention or probable effect of illegally restricting, eliminating, preventing, or distorting competition.

You must not take part in any

- anti-competitive activities. These consist of, but are not limited to:
- limitation or controlling of production or capacity;
- price-fixing;
- market sharing or market division;
- limitation and control of capacity;
- meetings, conferences, forums, committees, and similar which are organized by trade or industrial organizations and may have an anti-competitive effect;
- exchange of information concerning prices or other terms and conditions regarding Everwest Group companies, suppliers or other related third parties;
- exchange of other illegal or confidential information.

5.2 MEETINGS, CONFERENCES AND VENDOR EVENTS

Never discuss business-related, potentially competition restricting topics with competitors. If competition restricting topics are discussed at a meeting or industry forum, in disagreement with competition law, you must leave the room immediately and request that your departure and refusal to participate be entered into the minutes of the meeting. If minutes are not usually prepared at such meetings, employees must request the preparation of such minutes. If the request is not accommodated, employees must write their own minutes and inform senior management accordingly.

You are advised to proceed with caution not only in physical meetings but also when participating in virtual forums (telephone meetings, social media forums, video calls, webcasts, etc.) where information may be published or shared.

If participation in such events takes place, be aware that any agreements made in such events, regardless of contract form, must always be negotiated in compliance with fair competition principles.

You should consult your immediate manager or the relevant senior management before participating in events where competitors may be present and business-related topics might be discussed formally or informally, this also applies to vendor events.

ANTI-CORRUPTION

Everwest Group operates using the following specific rules to address anti-corruption. The principles do not prohibit normal and appropriate hospitality given or received. If in doubt, please contact your immediate manager or senior management.

6.1 BRIBERY

Bribery refers to any offer, kickback or acceptance of a gift, loan, fee, remuneration or anything of value to or from another person or entity as an incentive to influence or promote a certain act or omission which would not have been appropriate in the absence of the bribery. The prohibition of bribery extends beyond monetary transfers and includes the transfer of any kind of assets.

Consequently, the prohibition covers bribery in the form of payment of travel expenses; disproportionate entertainment expenses; charitable donations; delivery of products or services; transfer of financial or other personal benefits.

Everwest Group does not tolerate any form of bribery, without exception, including in countries where bribery is legal or where it is accepted as normal business practice.

You must not accept or offer a bribe of any kind.

6.2 KICKBACKS

Kickbacks are considered as a form of bribery. All prohibitions towards bribery apply for kickbacks.

You must not accept or offer a kickback.

6.3 FACILITATION PAYMENTS

Facilitation payments are often small payments made to lower-level public officials to ensure their performance or to speed up a government or official process, which the employee is already duty-bound to perform.

You must not make facilitation payments or accept such practice in any country by any parties, including third parties acting on behalf of Everwest Group, even if they are a part of local law or local custom.ffer a kickback.

6.4 MONEY LAUNDERING OR FINANCING OF TERRORISM OR OTHER CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

Money laundering is the act of concealing or disguising money obtained from criminal activities and making them appear to have originated from legitimate sources or constitute legitimate assets. Concealment of the fund source or the intended use of funds may be involved in funding terrorism operations.

You must not engage in money laundering, funding of terrorism, funding of other criminal activities or be involved in any other activities that facilitate money laundering.

GIFTS AND DONATIONS

While entertainment, hospitality and the exchange of business gifts are considered common practice and part of building and maintaining business relationships throughout the world, we should limit this to the absolute minimum.

7.1 NO GIFT POLICY

The No Gift Policy strictly prohibits all employees from giving or accepting gifts no matter the value or the reason (except token gifts of nominal value). You must not solicit, accept, or offer gifts to clients, prospective clients, business partners, government officials, suppliers or any other third parties.

Although gifts may be well intended, it can potentially pose as a conflict of interest or might be seen as act of corruption. The No Gift Policy is in place to avoid situations which may influence the employee's judgment in a decision-making process or put the employee in a position of conflict or obligation not in the best interests of Everwest Group.

An exemption to the policy is token gifts that are of nominal value, for example gifts with a company logo (such as pens, notepads, planners, calendars and other small promotional items) that are given out to employees, customers, delegates, students and members of the public, attending events such as conferences, exhibitions, trainings, career fairs, etc., and deemed as part of a company's brand building or promotional activities.

If you are offered a free dinner or to take part in an activity of a similar nature, you must disclose this to your immediate manager and get approval before accepting.

The No Gift Policy applies to all of the Everwest Group, its employees, and their family members. If there is a doubt, check with your immediate manager or senior management when further clarification is needed.

7.2 DONATIONS TO CHARITY

Everwest Group recognises the importance of companies in supporting charities and local communities.

Reasonable support and donations may be in the form of payment, services or materials and must be approved by the relevant senior management.

It must be ensured that any payments to community organisations are not a form of bribery and are not used as a cover for fraud. Contributions or sponsorships must be disclosed, transparent and in accordance with national legislation.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

A conflict of interest is when an employee's obligations and interests when acting on behalf of Everwest Group conflict with his or her personal interests. It is important that employees conduct business activities in the best interest of Everwest Group. It is the responsibility of every employee to exercise personal judgement regarding conflicts of interest in compliance with internal rules of prevention of conflict of interest and to seek advice from their immediate manager or senior management when in doubt.

8.1 SUPPLIERS AND CUSTOMERS

You must not participate in any commercial transactions between a Everwest Group company and a supplier or customer in which you have direct or indirect personal interests, financial or otherwise.

The transactions must be approved in advance by senior management of the relevant Everwest Group company.

This is applicable to transactions between a Everwest Group companies and all natural and legal persons that are related parties to senior management. Examples of related parties are family members, companies of family members, own companies, other companies in which the relevant member of management has significant influence.

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Everwest Group is committed to minimizing pollution, promoting efficiency and the use of sustainable resources, including energy, fuel, and water, and reducing Greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions.

Within our policies, and procedures the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact are incorporated into the company at every level. Our focus is on getting the balance of Environmental, Social, and Governance factors right.

To ensure that Everwest Group contributes to Environmental protection, we systematically develop and continuously improve our Environmental Management System (EMS).

The EMS has allowed us to identify risks and opportunities on how to improve results.

We determine our organization stakeholders, their needs, and expectations as below:

Our EMS is prepared and certified under the ISO 14001 standard and commits to the following main goals:

- Apply green criteria for purchasing; Measure our customers' emissions and provide them with reports;
- Prevent potential environmental incidents and be ready to address any issues that do occur; Search for new green solutions for our customers' cargo transportation
- Monitor and comply with the environmental legislation in all the countries in which we operate;
- Reduce pollution and GHG emissions;

- Build awareness by involving employees and partners in efforts to protect the environment;

Our aim is to ensure that our EMS programme is applicable to all organization activities, from local offices, production facilities, warehouses, garages, and outsourced activities, including subcontractors to all take measures towards pollution mitigation. We know that environmental impact reduction starts from measuring what it is.

10.1 SUSTAINABLE AND INNOVATIVE TRANSPORT AND LOGISTICS SYSTEMS

To the extent possible and whenever available, you must look for and offer sustainable and innovative transport and logistics systems that continually reduce our, our customers' and our suppliers' environmental impact.

Our services should always represent our environmental considerations, and you should support our business model development and improvement.

10.2 COMPLYING WITH PUBLIC AUTHORITY REQUIREMENTS

In Everwest Group we urge our employees to lead an open and constructive dialogue with authorities, shareholders, customers, suppliers, and other stakeholders about environmental impact related to our activities.

10.3 CAREFUL SELECTION OF SUPPLIERS

Our suppliers are selected based on the criteria formulated in the Everwest Group Supplier Code of Conduct, which will be distributed to suppliers and available on www.everwest.net. The Supplier Code of Conduct describes what is considered appropriate business conduct by suppliers when they perform services on behalf of or supply services or products to Everwest Group.

You must ensure that suppliers are familiar with the Supplier Code of Conduct and take relevant steps to ensure compliance.

COMPLYING WITH THE CODE OF CONDUCT

11

If you need assistance or have questions or concerns about the Code of Conduct, you should first consult the person who best understands your area of responsibility: your immediate manager.

For employee (HR) related issues, e.g., concerns involving management and/ or other employees, you should contact your immediate manager and/or Human Resources representative.

Should this not be possible due to the nature of the concern, you are urged to reach out to senior management or use the Everwest Group Whistleblower Programme.

Senior management considers any breach of the principles stated in this Code of Conduct to be a material neglect of duty by the relevant employee, which may lead to disciplinary measures up to and including termination of employment and summary dismissal.

You are urged to contact either your immediate manager or senior management in case of breach or suspected breach of the principles and rules outlined in this Code of Conduct.

Employees can file such reports without fear of retaliation, unless they take part in the breach of policies.

If you become aware of any breaches of Everwest Group Code of Conduct, please right away inform your immediate manager, senior management or through the Everwest Group Whistleblower Programme (by emailing signal@everwest.net).

This applies to cases where you have a reason to believe that a concern will not be adequately handled through other available reporting channels, or if you feel uncomfortable speaking directly to your immediate manager or have followed the normal hierarchy reporting procedure but feel that the concern was not properly acted upon.
